

Year 3 reading

In the shimmering sea, a pod of playful dolphins leaps joyfully through the crashing waves. With sleek bodies gliding swiftly, they race each other, their joyful clicks echoing under the water. They are the wave runners, masters of the surf, who have learned to harness the ocean's power to travel great distances. Their graceful dance with the waves is a sight to behold, as they outpace the swiftest creatures of the deep.