

World Book Day - Thursday 2nd March

This year, the school council, using ideas from the children in all classes, have decided that to celebrate World Book Day they would like everyone to:

- Bring in an age-appropriate book for a book swap (this may be a little different this year due to the hall not being in use)
- Dress up in a home-made costume of a character from a book - keep it simple, not all characters have elaborate clothes
- Create a potato character that is linked to your costume - it could be the same as you, or from the same book. Here are some ideas:
