

Executive Head Teacher: Melanie Smallwood
Head of School: Karen Lintin

Barum class learning

This week in English, we have started a new unit on Poetry, using a Poem titled 'The Sea is'. We have learnt what metaphors are, how to use a possessive apostrophe in our writing and we have drawn our favourite line from the poem and explained why we like this line.

In Math's we have been making fact families with our number bonds to 10 and 20 facts. We have been learning how to use related facts to solve problems with bigger numbers. For example, if we know that $6+4=10$ then we also know that $60+40=100$.

This week in science, we worked collaboratively in groups to create different world habitats using various materials from around the classroom. Next, we each chose a different animal to focus on; we drew the animal in its habitat and wrote some facts about the habitat and the type of climate it has.

Home Learning

Thank you for all the beautiful Christmas trees made so far for our class display. Your decorated trees can still be brought into school next week if you have not yet had chance to make one, please ask if you would like another template.

This week please could the children practise the song attached below for our Christingle performance.

We will be making our Pizzas on Wednesday 11th December, so please remember to bring in your pizza toppings Wednesday morning.

Reading

We expect everyone to be reading at home at least five times a week. Please remember to sign the reading journal each week so we can see the amazing reading you are doing together at home. Please ensure Reading journals and books are sent into school every day for reading in class 😊

A Starry Night

It was on a starry night
When the hills were bright,
Earth lay sleeping, sleeping calm and still.
Then in a cattle shed,
In a manger bed,
A boy was born king of all the world.
And all the angels sang for him,
The bells of heaven rang for him,
For a boy was born king of all the world.
And all the angels sang for him,
The bells of heaven rang for him,
For a boy was born king of all the world.
Soon the shepherds came that way,
Where the baby lay,
And were kneeling, kneeling by his side,
And their hearts believed again
For the peace of men,
For a boy was born king of all the world.