Barum class learning

This week in English Barum class were amazing authors and wrote their own fantastic stories based on the book 'The disgusting sandwich'. In their writing they used; expanded noun phrases, past tense verbs, speech and paragraphs.

In Maths we have been working on adding ones to 2 and 3-digit numbers crossing the tens boundary using column addition method.

Barum class asked questions about the UK and Brazil, which we will answer over the next few weeks to help us with our enquiry question: Would you rather live in the UK or Brazil? We recalled our previous Geography learning about the equator and used Google Earth to find the UK and Brazil.

In Art, the children looked at work by the Brazilian pop artist Romero Britto. They talked about what they liked, disliked and the patterns, shapes and colours they could see.
