Barum home learning

This week in English we enjoyed watching a short film 'Taking Flight', as the inspiration for our setting description writing. We collected nouns from the film and interesting adjectives to describe the nouns, verbs to describe what the characters did and adverbs to describe how they moved. We then wrote some super setting descriptions imagining we were the boy in the film.

In Maths, we have been learning about odd and even numbers. We can identify odd and even numbers and explain how we know a number is odd or even. We have also been practicing our counting in 2's, 5's and 10's and using this knowledge to help us solve problems.

This week in History, we talked about what History is and what Historians do. We made our history badges ready to become Historians. First, we found out who the Victorians were. Then, we looked at pictures of Queen Victoria and produced some fantastic sketches of her.

We have been amazing Artists this week and have completed the final stages of our jungle canvas' inspired by the work of 'Henri Rousseau'. The final pieces are all fantastic and we are very proud of our work.
